GPBOTTLES, CREATING IN CHINA

We offer customization and contract manufacturing services for perfume bottle packaging. Our company was established to cater to niche perfume brands eager to showcase their unique perfume styles. We are dedicated to assisting them in solving the supply chain challenges related to perfume bottles, caps, and accessories.

GPB believes that packaging is not just the appearance of perfume, but a way to express the brand image, story, creativity, quality level, and to create value and a meaningful user experience for both the brand itself and its consumers. We consider the customization and contract manufacturing service as our mission to assist niche perfume brands in creating unique perfume packaging that aligns with their brand image.
